The Nomination Committee (or, in the absence of such a Committee, the full Board) will arrange a performance evaluation of the Board, its Committees, individual Directors and senior executives on an annual basis. To assist in this process an independent advisor may be used.

The Nomination Committee (or, in the absence of such a Committee, the full Board) will conduct an annual review of the role of the Board, assess the performance of the Board over the previous 12 months and examine ways of assisting the Board in performing its duties more effectively.

The review will include:

- (b) examination of the Board's interaction with management;
- (c) the nature of information provided to the Board by management; and
- (d) management's performance in assisting the Board to meet its objectives.

A similar review will be conducted for each Committee by the Board with the aim of assessing the performance of each Committee and identifying areas where improvements can be made.

The Remuneration Committee (or, in the absence of such a Committee, the full Board) will oversee the evaluation of the remuneration of the Company's senior executives. This evaluation must be based on specific criteria, including the business performance of the Company and its subsidiaries, whether strategic objectives are being achieved and the development of management and personnel.

If required by applicable regulation or listing rules, the Company must disclose, in relation to each financial year, whether or not the relevant annual performance evaluations have been conducted in accordance with the above processes.
